THE DAILY BULLETIN.

SATURDAY EVE, NOVEMBER 8, 1884

If you are determined to live and die a slave to custom see that at least it is a good one.

WEST VIRGINIA sends greeting to the nation with an increased majority for Cleveland.

Scattering returns from Texas indicate that the Democrats are sure of a small plurality—say 100,000.

The Congressional race is very close and as we said yesterday it will require the official returns to determine who is elected. The Republicans still claim Mr. Wadsworth's election by about one hundred.

CLEVELAND is certainly elected by the following electoral vote:

The South.....	153
New York.....	35
Indiana.....	13
New Jersey.....	9
Connecticut.....	7
Total.....	217

The six o'clock edition of the Cincinnati Times-Star, of yesterday afternoon, says: It looks to day blue for the Republicans. The official count is progressing, and, according to the Associated Press, shows large Democratic gains over the figures which had been previously given out. The New York Tribune still claims the State, but appears to base its claim on Associated Press figures without taking into consideration the corrections which the Associated Press itself announces.

The Albany Journal says: "On Tuesday the boards or supervisors meet in various counties and canvass the returns. Their duties are purely clerical. They simply add up the total returns of towns, election districts and wards, certify to their accuracy and transmit the certified returns to the Secretary of State. "During this month the State Board of Canvassers, consisting of Secretary Carr, Comptroller Chapin, Attorney-General O'Brien, State Treasurer Maxwell, and State Engineer Sweet meet in this city and add up the totals of the Supervisors' returns from the counties, and the result is the official vote of the State; and according to that result the certificates of election are issued by the State Board of Presidential Electors who have been chosen."

The Albany Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will put James G. Blaine in the White House, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterward. "Gov. Cleveland said: 'I believe I have been elected President, and nothing but the grossest fraud can keep me out of it, and that we will not permit.' "Gen. Carr, Secretary of State and a Republican, says: 'There is no chance for stealing this State, not as long as I have charge of the affair. I don't suppose that any body could steal the State. If Mr. Cleveland has a plurality, in or out, he will get it. The same is true of the other candidate. I don't propose to play any Southern game. No matter whether it is a friend or foe, with me he has to have his justice.'"

Victory Assured.

(Special to the Courier-Examiner.)

New York, Nov. 7, 2 a. m.—Boys we have got them this time. Cleveland. They may kick and squeal as much as they like, but I have seen the official vote of each county in the State of New York, and I tell you Cleveland and Hendricks have a majority over Blaine and Logan. Utterly disregard all other dispatches to the contrary, and bet every dollar you have got on what I tell you. But make your bets that Cleveland will receive the electoral vote of the State of New York, and will be the next President of the United States. O. O. S.

Matrimonial Mine in Manitoba.

(Hartford Sunday Journal.)

Talking about matrimonial schemes, there is a young woman up in Manitoba who certainly should command the sincere reverence of her sex. She is English—she came over a few months ago, landing in Manitoba a perfect stranger. Since then she has succeeded in getting a husband for herself and mates for 117 of unmarried countrywomen. Now, if I were a lady whose age was beginning to open up a correspondence with a woman as one; but if I were a confirmed old bachelor resident of Manitoba, I would take to the woods to-morrow morning.

A Tight Squeeze.

(From the Burlington Hawkeye.)

"William Broker," she said to her husband very earnestly, as they sat at the breakfast table, "look me in the eye and tell me the truth; are you loving all your money in a fruit speculation?"

He was seized to death when she first began, but conscious innocence gave him strength and courage as she continued her question.

"No," he said finally, "I am not."

"I believe you are," she said, shaking her head, "for last night you cried in your sleep, and said you had lost every cent you had in the world on one little pear."

And then he gasped and admitted that he had dropped a few cases in a little deal in pearish fruits. But it was the narrowest escape he ever had in his life.

The tendency is to buy largely of all American shares except Gould shares. No Wonder.

A MAN WHO SUFFERED MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AGONY EIGHT YEARS PROCLAIMS HIS HAPPINESS.

Mental agony is dreadful, but when that and physical ailments combine, it is simply terrible. Such was the condition of Geo. W. Frampton, of Huntingdon, Va., for eight years. He was a sufferer of neurotic disease, the last being the attack was inflamed and mortified, which caused running sores. He says: "Pieces of bone the size of a silver three cent piece came out of the sores on my leg. The discharge from the sores was almost continual, and I was unable to walk. For eight years I have been in the hands of the best physicians, and the treatment of a physician at Newport, Ky., for a year; another at Burlington, O., attended me for three years, and a doctor here at Huntingdon worked with me for a long time. None of them did me any good, and they all finally said my case was hopeless. A few months ago I commenced trying PARINA, and now I am well. I can walk as good as anybody, and have perfect use of my limbs."

At Lexington, Westchester, Ohio, writes:

"Dr. HARTMAN, Columbus, O.: I have been a great sufferer from that dreaded disease, catarrh of the stomach. I have thoroughly tried your PARINA, and it has done me more good ten-fold than all the doctors' prescriptions, and I have used legions of them."

Mr. Edgar Hartman writes P. O. Elk county, Pa., writes: "I have bought several bottles of your PARINA, and find it to be of great benefit. I also have told some of my friends; they experienced the same result."

Mr. L. R. Wollen, 45 and 47 Ross street, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "I am taking PARINA with good results, and can highly recommend it to all. I have applied the different drug stores for one of your books. They claim they have none on hand at present. Please do me the favor to send me one."

W. W. Russell, druggist, Canonsburg, Pa., writes: "I handle your medicine, PARINA. I have sold immense quantities of it, and consider it a staple article. I have a great many customers who think there is no medicine like it for a tonic or for building up the system. I recommend it as a safely reliable remedy."

Dr. A. F. Fisher, Hamilton, Ohio, writes: "I take pleasure in recommending the use of PARINA and MANALIN to any one afflicted with any form of lung or bronchial trouble. I have been for some time afflicted with a very troublesome cough, but a few bottles of PARINA entirely cured me."
